4. STATEMENT: The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the required reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional. [NOTE: The United States Patent and Trademark Office may require additional information if there is a question as to whether either the abandonment or the delay in filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional (MPEP 711.03(c), subsections (III)(C) and (D)).]

WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

PETITION TO REVIVE PURSUANT TO 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b)

Madam:

Applicants hereby submit this Petition to Revive in connection with the above-captioned patent application. The entire delay in filing the required documents to prevent the abandonment of the application due to the passing of the statutory six-month period until the filing of this grantable Petition pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b) was unintentional.

Concurrently with this Petition, Applicants submit:

- (1) an Amendment in Response to the Office Action dated November 30, 2006.
- (2) a Request for Continued Examination ("RCE"); and
- (3) a check in the amount of $1,145 for the government fee for this Petition ($750), and the RCE ($395).

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being deposited with the United States Postal Service as First Class Mail in an envelope addressed to Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, VA 22313-1450 on July 16, 2007.

STATEMENT

Applicants respectfully submit that the entire delay in filing the required documents to prevent the abandonment of the application due to the passing of the statutory six-month period until the filing of this grantable Petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b) was unintentional and request the revival of the application for unintentional abandonment.

REQUEST FOR CONTINUED EXAMINATION

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.114, Applicants request that the Examiner consider the Amendment dated July 13, 2007 as a submission with respect to the filing of the concurrently submitted RCE together with the government fee of $395 in accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(e).

CONCLUSION

Applicants respectfully request that this Petition be granted for unintentional abandonment and that thereafter, prosecution of the application continue based upon the amendments and arguments set forth in the concurrently submitted Amendment.

A check in the amount of $1,145 is submitted for the government fees associated with the Petition to Revive and the RCE. If any further fees are necessary, the Commissioner for Patents is hereby authorized to charge any additional fees to Deposit Account No. 23-0650. Similarly, Applicants respectfully request any overpayment to be credited to the aforementioned deposit account. A favorable decision is respectfully requested. The original and two copies of this submission are enclosed.

Respectfully submitted,

THE WEBB LAW FIRM
